Ed,

Please see Attorney Maher's email answer below regarding my question of whether or not the BOS will have authority to request funds from the Cemetery Maintenance Trust Fund after the Pelham Board of Cemetery Trustees is dissolved on June 9th.

Thanks,
Joe R.

Hi Joe:

I do not believe that a new warrant article needs to be passed designating the BOS as the agents of the fund. The terms of the article were to "delegate the duties and responsibilities of the cemetery trustees to the board of selectmen." As such, the roles of the Cemetery Trustees in expending from the fund from 2009, have by virtue of the 2025 Town Meeting vote, been delegated to the Select Board.

Naturally, the Trustees of the Trust Fund should be responsible for the care, management, and investment of those funds, but the Select Board can expend.

All the best,

Eric

Attorney Maher,

As you are aware, the Town of Pelham voted for the Board of Selectmen (BOS) to assume control of the town cemeteries from the Pelham Board of Cemetery Trustees beginning June 9, 2025. On that date the Pelham Board of Cemetery Trustees will be dissolved.

In 2009 the Town of Pelham voted to establish a Cemetery General Maintenance Fund. The cemetery trustees were named "agents of the fund" within the warrant article language (below). After June 9th 2025 do the BOS become the "agents of the fund" or do we need a warrant article designating the BOS that status?

Let me know.

Thank you,
Joe R.
